2. Invitees:

 - b. Maddie Mohr, EY
 - c. Claire Williams, KPMG

Meeting Notes:

Kevin Tam called the meeting to order. Announcements regarding the upcoming guest speaker series, the UCSB KPMG Ideation Challenge Team, and Winter Meet the Firms.

- 1) What are your firms' application timelines? What should students apply for?
 - a) Sam: SLP applications are due February 23rd. Students seeking Elevate internships should apply for 2022 internships. We are not sure what these will look like yet.
 - b) Sarah: SLPs are focused on sophomores. The application is on Handshake and the summer 2022 internship is what you will apply to! We also have summer 2021 internships in the Bay Area available.
 - c) Claire: All of our opportunities are posted on our KPMG site. We also have open internships and full time positions posted on our website!
 - d) Maddie: We are mainly focused on freshmen and sophomore opportunities this spring, with limited full time and internship positions on Handshake. For SLPs, apply to our summer 2022 internships.
- 2) Do I have to commit to a service line when I apply to SLPs?
 - a) Sarah: No! It is nearly impossible to know what you want so early so there are chances to change. Some students change but it isn't the most common occurrence.
 - b) Maddie: We try our best to educate you about the different service lines. It is rare to switch but not impossible.
- 3) What do your firms do to help develop the skills of interns and new associates?

Big 4 Panel

- a) Claire: We all have phenomenal training programs. You will have TONS of training and you will feel confident in your role once you get through it.
- b) Sam: I agree with Claire. There is also a lot of mentorship and on the job training. You will have tons of opportunities to learn from senior associates and others. Virtual trainings will also help you develop tons of different skills!
- 4) What should a freshman that graduates early do?
 - a) Maddie: We all base off of CPA eligibility dates. If you will be CPA eligible the same year as the traditional class of 2023 students, you will apply to 2022 summer internships (the 2021 summer SLP).

Adjournment:

Kevin Tam adjourned the meeting.
